

Kettler Kapers

By LEONA and AL WIMMELL

RICHARD JON KELL, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Kell, 23101 Falena avenue, made his entrance into the world last Thursday at San Pedro Community Hospital and glimpsed Kettler Knolls three days later when he and his mother came home Sunday. Richard, who weighed 7 pounds 3 1/2 ounces at birth, has two brothers for playmates, Kenny, 6, and Jimmy, 2. The proud father is a salesman for the Coca-Cola Company. Mrs. Kell's mother, Mrs. Eugenia Newman of Long Beach, is visiting the family and helping to take care of the new arrival.

A POTLUCK PICNIC at Torrance Park was enjoyed by eight Kettlerite families on Memorial Day. The gathering was such a success that plans are being made to make it an annual affair extending an invitation to all Kettler Knolls folks to join joyed the games and strawberry shortcake which followed were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stroub, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lockett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wise and Mrs. Minnie Olsen.

A VACATION TRIP to Washington and Oregon was much enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Loy, 2116 Middlebrook road, and their 2-year-old daughter, Linda Susan. They visited relatives, including Mr. Loy's 90-year-old grandmother in Asotin, Washington. A trip to the Oregon Caves, the California Redwoods, and the State of California Library were highlights of the trip.

MRS. HAROLD HOLMES, 23217 Falena avenue, issued a warning Monday to mothers of small boys who climb when she described how her 3-year-old son, Kenny, crawled up a bedspring in the garage and pulled it over on top of him, knocking out his front tooth, and smacking his head on the pavement. Kenny's recovery was most rapid, however, for she discovered him an hour later chewing bubble gum and cracking peanuts with his remaining teeth.

MR. AND MRS. EDGAR BELL, 23305 Falena avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Garrett of Longview, Texas, over the Memorial Day holidays. Mrs. Garrett is Mrs. Bell's sister. Mr. Garrett, who was manager of Hotel Longview for the Hilton chain, has been transferred to Hotel Manor in San Diego.

MRS. M. E. MILLER, 1823 Marinette street, reports that her 3-year-old son, Steven, has a mild case of the chickenpox. Next door, in the Herbert Streit home, Kathy, 5, has just recovered from the disease, but Cindy, 2, and Debbie, 5 months, now have their share of the little red bumps.

WE ARE BACK AT THE GRIND again after a wonderful 10-day vacation at "Linger-Longer," the rustic but restful cottage of our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chandler, at Blue Jay near Lake Arrowhead. The weather was grand up there, and for once the fish were biting my bait. I caught 28 at Arrowhead and Big Bear which kept Leona busy with the frying pan. Now that we are back, I'd rather spend my day off at the beach than trotting around these tracts like a door-to-door salesman. How about a little cooperation? Will you call Lomita 2161-W or write us at 23304 Falena avenue and let us know what's new with you?

A DARLING BABY named Eva Katherine was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ritchie, 2187 Middlebrook road, Tuesday, May 30. The neighbors are quite thrilled about the tiny new arrival in their neighborhood.

A TRIP TO SAN DIEGO was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. James Morehead and daughters, Janice, 6, and Marilyn, 3, of 2117 Middlebrook road, recently. They visited in the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Soderman, for several days. The girls were quite impressed by the famous San Diego zoo.

BOB AND BERNICE MOORE, 1718 W. 235th street, entertained with a canasta party Saturday evening. The guests who en-

Receiving a check for second prize in the recent state-wide Catholic Daughters of America contest for the best original poetry with a religious theme is Betty Jessome, sixth-grade student at Nativity Catholic school. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jessome, of 1727 Gramercy avenue. Handing her the check is Mrs. Frank J. Farrell while Mrs. T. T. Babbitt looks on.—Herald Photo.

WALTERIANS ENTERTAIN AT LUNCHEON MONDAY

Marking the semester's closing of the Walteria dressmaking and tailoring class, with Mrs. Dorothy Giller as instructor, a special noon luncheon was held Monday at the Walteria Recreation Hall. Each woman contributed a specialty that gave the luncheon menu a wide variety of delectable dishes of foreign countries and epicurean delights.

Lamb in typical Norwegian style was served with a special spiced cheese. German potato salad and a variety of relishes added zest to the party. A decorated cake with the inscription "An apple for the teacher," a product of Mrs. Milton Langum, was given to Mrs. Giller. The women present gave Mrs. Giller a Kordeit pocketbook, a gesture of their appreciation for her wonderful guidance.

Donald Manshaw, director, Torrance School of Adult Education, announced that adult classes will be resumed on September 18, with Walteria getting a representative share.

Walterians present at the luncheon included: Mrs. Paul Sionecker, 24430 Neece; Mrs. Milton Langum, 3852 Newton; Mrs. Elsie Minor, 23842 Park; Mrs. Carl Cramer, 24430 Ward street; Mrs. Barbara Taraldson, 24055 Ocean avenue; Mrs. H. Price, 24430 Ward street; Mrs. A. Olsen, 24212 Neece avenue; Mrs. Rudger Busch, 23861 Ward street; Mrs. George Olding, 3650 Newton; Mrs. Clark Smart, 2400 Neece avenue; Mrs. Eva Kelley, 23863 Park street; Mrs. Helen Anderson, 23856 Ward street; Mrs. Helen Conze, 24409 Ocean avenue; Mrs. Anne Loughridge, 24069 Ocean avenue; Mrs. Mary Belle White, 3850 Newton; Mrs. George Bryant, 3858 Newton; Mrs. J. Wimer, 3618 Short; Mrs. Ethel Harrison, 24247 Los Coda. Others were: Mrs. Naomi Leming, 2439 W. 255th street, Lomita; Mrs. Mit Short, 1113 La Alca Avenue, Wilmington; Mrs. Mary Krueger, 1755 W. 257th street, Lomita; Mrs. M. King, 1961 Plaza del Amo, Torrance; Mrs. Eunice Robinson, 2334 W. 241st street, Lomita; Mrs. Mildred Donnee, 2244 Pacific Coast highway, Lomita.

A woman must choose. With a man liked by women she is not secure; with a man whom women do not like she is not happy. — ANATOLE FRANCE

YOUR BACKLOG
By J. Hugh Sherkey, Jr.

Good husband demands a backlog, something to sustain between peaks of good fortune.

The most successful men were careful of their friends during school years; those friends are their backlog now. Doctors, everywhere, have a backlog of friends and patients who keep practice fires burning brightly. Executives of the Bell Telephone Company have a backlog of practical experience; through application and ability they have worked up and up to their present positions. Merchants have a backlog of customer-confidence. Salesmen's backlog is integrity, husband and wife have a backlog of faith in each other and neighbors have a backlog of mutual respect.

The things we do today form a backlog for tomorrow; a youth who is true to his ideals, himself and others is building a backlog for tomorrow, adults who fulfill their obligations to City, County, State, Nation and fellowmen build backlogs that sustain, bring color to a gray existence and make life worth living.

Fashion Show June 9 Open To Public

A fashion show featuring vacation fashions and honeymoon attire will be presented at Harbor Junior College on Friday evening, June 9, by the members of the Professional Modeling Class, according to Miss Peggy Mason, instructor.

The show is open to the public and will be held in the Women's Gym building, beginning at 8 p.m.

Harbor Tech coeds who will model the latest fashions are Geri Benson, Agnes Armstrong, Carol Graham, Patricia Judson, Jerry Rosin, and Connie Kolberg.

Students in charge of the affair are: Vivian Robertson, models director; Peggy Roche, commentator; Mary Trutanish, and Beverly McKegg, decorations; Patricia Blackmon and Gloria Chavez, hostesses; Joana Price and Barbara Moore, serving hostesses.

Intermission instrumental numbers will be offered by the Harbor Tech string quartet. Members of the group are John Bernardi, violinist, Miss Loretta Newman, viola player, Mrs. T. R. Battersby, cellist, and Joan Godsil, pianist.

HOSPITALIZED
Mrs. Robert L. Lewellen Sr., of 1307 Madrid avenue is making a satisfactory recovery following surgery Saturday at Torrance Memorial Hospital.
